

1.Directions: Identify the pronoun in each sentence and write its type (personal, possessive,demonstrative, reflexive, or indefinite).

1. She is my best friend.
2. The cat licked its paws.
3. I myself made the cake
4. They will meet us at the restaurant.
5. This is your book.
6. Someone left their umbrella behind.
7. He gave her a present
8. Our house is on the left.
9. These are my shoes.
- 10.We enjoyed ourselves at the party.

Answer key:

1. personal pronoun, third-person singular feminine
2. possessive pronoun, third-person singular neuter
3. reflexive pronoun, first-person singular
4. personal pronoun, third-person plural
5. demonstrative pronoun, second-person singular
6. indefinite pronoun, third-person singular neuter
7. personal pronoun, third-person singular masculine and third-person singular feminine
8. possessive pronoun, first-person plural
9. demonstrative pronoun, first-person singular
10. reflexive pronoun, first-person plural

2.Directions: Identify the pronoun in each sentence and write its type (personal, possessive, demonstrative, reflexive, relative, or indefinite).

1. The book that she gave me was very interesting.
2. My sister and I went to the park.
3. They will be staying at our house for the weekend
4. The car was hers, not mine.
5. Who left their phone on the table?
6. This is the house where I grew up.
7. He hurt himself while playing basketball.
8. Our trip to Europe was amazing.
9. These are the best cookies I have ever had.
10. Nobody knew what to do when the power went out.

Answer key:

1. relative pronoun, third-person singular feminine
2. personal pronoun, first-person singular and first-person singular
3. personal pronoun, third-person plural
4. possessive pronoun, third-person singular feminine and first-person singular
5. indefinite pronoun, third-person singular neuter
6. relative pronoun, first-person singular
7. reflexive pronoun, third-person singular masculine
8. possessive pronoun, first-person plural
9. demonstrative pronoun, first-person singular
10. indefinite pronoun, third-person singular neuter

3.Directions: Identify the pronoun in each sentence and write its type (personal, possessive, demonstrative, reflexive, relative, interrogative, or indefinite).

1. Whoever wants to come should let me know.
2. The man who spoke to you is my boss.
3. The baby was crying because he was hungry.
4. We decided to go to the beach instead of the mountains.
5. It is not my fault that they lost the game.
6. This is the painting that I was telling you about.
7. She thinks that he is lying to her.
8. Whose phone is this?
9. My friend and I went to the concert by ourselves.
10. None of the students knew the answer to the question.

Answer key:

1. indefinite pronoun, third-person singular neuter
2. relative pronoun, third-person singular masculine
3. personal pronoun, third-person singular masculine
4. personal pronoun, first-person plural
5. personal pronoun, third-person plural
6. relative pronoun, first-person singular
7. personal pronoun, third-person singular feminine and third-person singular masculine
8. interrogative pronoun, third-person singular neuter
9. reflexive pronoun, first-person singular and first-person singular
10. indefinite pronoun, third-person plural